Gentlemen:

I wish to state that Mr. Francis Tse was a student at this University during the year 1920 - 1921, at which time I taught him both semesters in English. If there is any need to certify to his character and conduct, I am happy to be able to say that both are of the highest. After his year with us Mr. Tse went for a year to Northwestern University.

Sincerely yours,

W. T. Kane

Head of Department of English.
